² The initial order of appointment was for GAL Kysa Crusco. The NHJB no longer possesses a copy of this order. Ms. Introcaso likely applied whiteout, on the court's original file copy of the May 12, 2015 order in Crawford, covering up Ms. Crusco's name, and writing in Ms. Sternenberg's name over the whiteout. Petitioner further alleges that Ms. Introcaso's actions in allegedly whiting out this order, in 2015, was a criminal violation of RSA 641:7.

³ At this time, Master DalPra had been aware of the conflict of interest since 2014.
